

Great Backyard Bird Count

February 19th @ 9:30am
Chain O' Lakes State Park
Nature Center

Saturday, February 19, Chain O 'Lakes State Park will host an Annual Great Backyard Bird Count hike. Participants should meet at the Nature Center by 9:30am. This count is held across the country and is geared towards both beginners as well the 'well-seasoned' birder. Help us collect data that is used to create a real time snapshot of the birds of North America.
